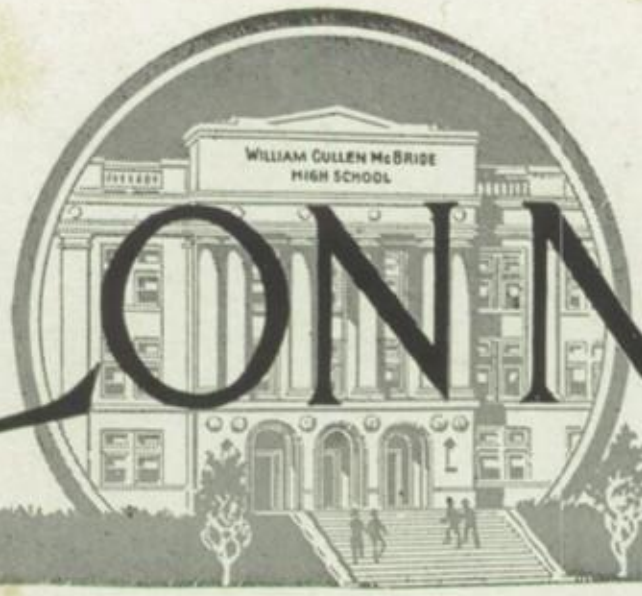
The COLONNADE



Vol. XVIII June 1942 Senior Issue

Memories

For the class of '42 all that remains of their four years at McBride are memories — many pleasant and some not — but always memories. This souvenir book is a memory, a stimulating record of friendships, events, activities both athletic and social, of classroom experiences, of joyous times. These pages recall the thousand little incidents that comprise school life — that comprise memories.

May they linger forever — these thoughts — as the class of '42 takes one last look at the old school before turning to the pursuits of mature life — its high school days just memories.

Bro. Stephen Ulsas, S. M.

Bro. Joseph Mack, S. M.

Dedication

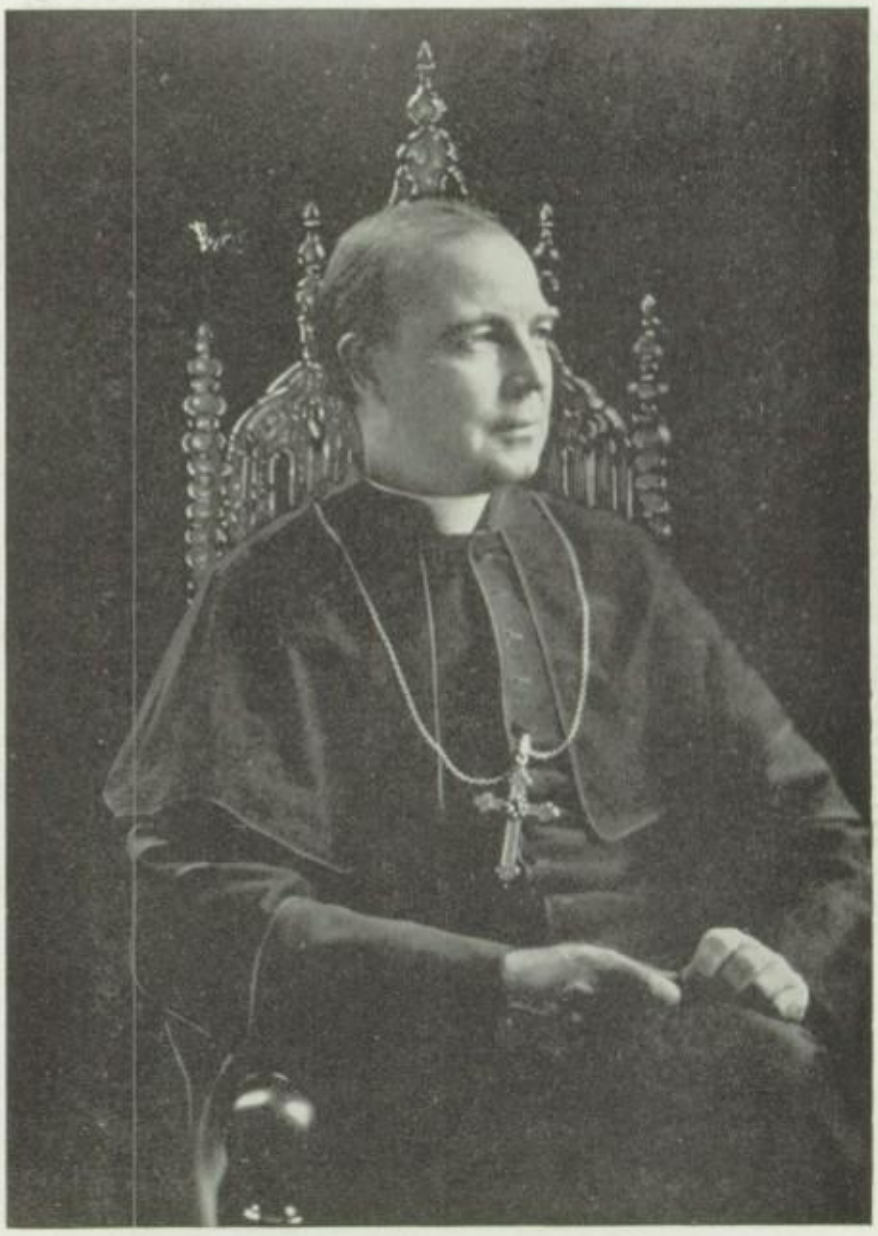
As the class of 1942 steps through the portals of its Alma Mater for the last time, it pauses to dedicate this book, a remembrance of years well spent, to the two members of the Society of Mary who have celebrated twenty-five years spent in the service of their God, teaching, moulding the Catholic men of tomorrow.

To these men, Bro. Stephen Ulsas and Bro. Joseph Mack, we wish to extend our congratulations, and to thank them, and all the Brothers of Mary for the knowledge both secular and spiritual, that they have imparted to us. We trust that some day the fruits of their labors will become apparent to them, to the world at large, and to Almighty God.

To His Excellency John Joseph Glennon, Archbishop of St. Louis, we, the Senior Class of 1942, extend our sincere congratulations and gratitude.

For almost four decades His Excellency has fostered and directed Catholic education and is directly responsible for the existence of the Catholic High School Association.

His zeal and devotion, his sponsorship and direction, his boundless generosity, will forever be remembered with heartfelt appreciation.



His Excellency
JOHN JOSEPH GLENNON, D. D.
Archbishop of St. Louis

Reverend
ALFRED G. THOMSON
Superintendent

Standing at the right hand of the Archbishop and directly charged with the supervision of Diocesan High Schools is Father Alfred Thomson. It is with genuine appreciation that the Seniors remember his devoted direction in their behalf.

Principal's Message

My dear Graduates:

On the Eve of your Graduation, you laid the wreath of victory upon the graves of six of your fellow Alumni who died in the service of our country and have offered your prayers at a Memorial Mass for the repose of their souls. You are proud of them and rightfully so, because they were true to the American tradition for fearlessness at the front, bravery in battle, and loyalty to their vows of true citizenship.

Today you too stand prepared to face a world where total war is being waged. How are you to meet this challenge? What is to be your response with the training you already possess? Your opinions may be divided unless you examine carefully, how you can do the greatest amount of good, now.

Your Government, realizing the need for educated and trained minds, does not want young men below the draft age to interrupt their education. Only where there is definite need of their services elsewhere, will the Government consider any call of the youth of school age in America.

I encourage each and every one of you then, to continue to improve yourself educationally as well as physically and spiritually, in cooperating with your country in working for national defense.

In joining with your happy parents, good teachers and kind friends, to wish my sincere felicitations upon the successful accomplishment of your worthy goal, A CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION, let me remind you, to put into efficient action always, the fine truths for which your education stands. And may the valor of your fellow-Alumni, of happy memory, inspire you to noble deeds always.

Yours in Our Lady,

BROTHER AMBROSE

STUDENT COUNCIL

With the inauguration of student participation in the government of scholastic affairs this year, many new changes were wrought at McBride.

The purpose of the Student Council is to develop school spirit, a closer union between faculty and students, and create initiative and leadership in the student body. Much credit is due Brother Clarence Saunders, who drew up the constitution and conducted the nominations and elections in a very diplomatic way.

The Student Council, sponsoring the first major social activity in many years, gave a roller skating party on Chaminade day. Besides this function, unique for McBride, a smoking privilege was extended to the seniors.

Standing: F. Geislinger, T. Cohen, D. Kenny, M. Molloy, J. Shortal, F. Schless, T. Finan, E. Polito.

The make-up of the government is quite simple. A president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer are chosen by popular election semi-annually. The successful candidates this year were, respectively: James Webb, Paul Sutter, Louis Roberts, and Edwin McGuire. A representative is chosen by each home-room to participate in legislation. To supplement the work of the Student Council, several committees have been created. Among the more important are: The Social Committee under the supervision of Thomas Finan, The Benevolent Committee under Jack Shortal, and The Spiritual Committee headed by William Gough. Each committee is a separate unit, the chairman of which is appointed by the President of the Student Council.

Although this is the first year of operation, this type of student government has surpassed all expectation. The crisis of the first year having successfully been passed, the Student Council in years to come should gather greater efficiency as it increases in age and gains new experience.

Standing: William Bentz, James Hummert, Joseph Martin, Clement Igel, Michael Delany, Don Schulte, Jack Woods.

COLONNADE

It is greatly due to the publication each month of the Colonnade that the interest of McBride students in their school is kept alive. The paper prints the current news about the school and the students themselves, and keeps the boys informed of future Mick events.

For the work of the past school year, the paper was awarded the rating of "All-American" by the National Scholastic Press Association. The NSPA is an organization which judges and constructively criticizes high-school newspapers the country over. This is the fourth consecutive year in which the Colonnade has been awarded this rating.

Nine staff members of the paper will be lost by graduation. Thomas Finan acted in the capacity of managing editor. He was assisted by feature editor Raymond Juergens, and news editor Frank Geislinger. John Shortal was in charge of the sport section, assisted by John David. Other fourth-year staff members were Vincent Harbke, Thomas Maloney, William Bentz, Charles Rakers, and Clement Igel.

Bro. Andrew Cremer, S.M., was the faculty moderator of the Colonnade for the past scholastic year.

SPELLING

Real quality is proved by continuance of excellence. This year, with only three of last year's members returning, the McBride Spelling Team captured the city title for the second consecutive year.

During the entire season, the spellers have been challenged with about one hundred twenty-five words, in four contests. Of this number, only eleven were misspelled, a score giving the team the commendable average of ninety per cent. Their victories were over Wellston, Soldan, Southwest, and St. Mark's.

In this season the team had one perfect meet. This was never accomplished before in the seven year history of the Spelling tournament.

It was much due to the work and ability of Brother Louis Schuster, the coach of the team, that the octet attained the standard of excellence in spelling which it did. It was Brother Louis's third year as coach of the team.

The contests, as in previous years, were conducted over Radio Station KSD. The station awarded the school with a trophy, through Mr. Frank Eschen, the spelling master of the contests.

ORCHESTRA

1942. Grab it 'fore it hops off the page! Got it? What? Burning? Why, yeah man! That's the year ol' McB started sendin' solid — really ridin' the riffs in big time style!

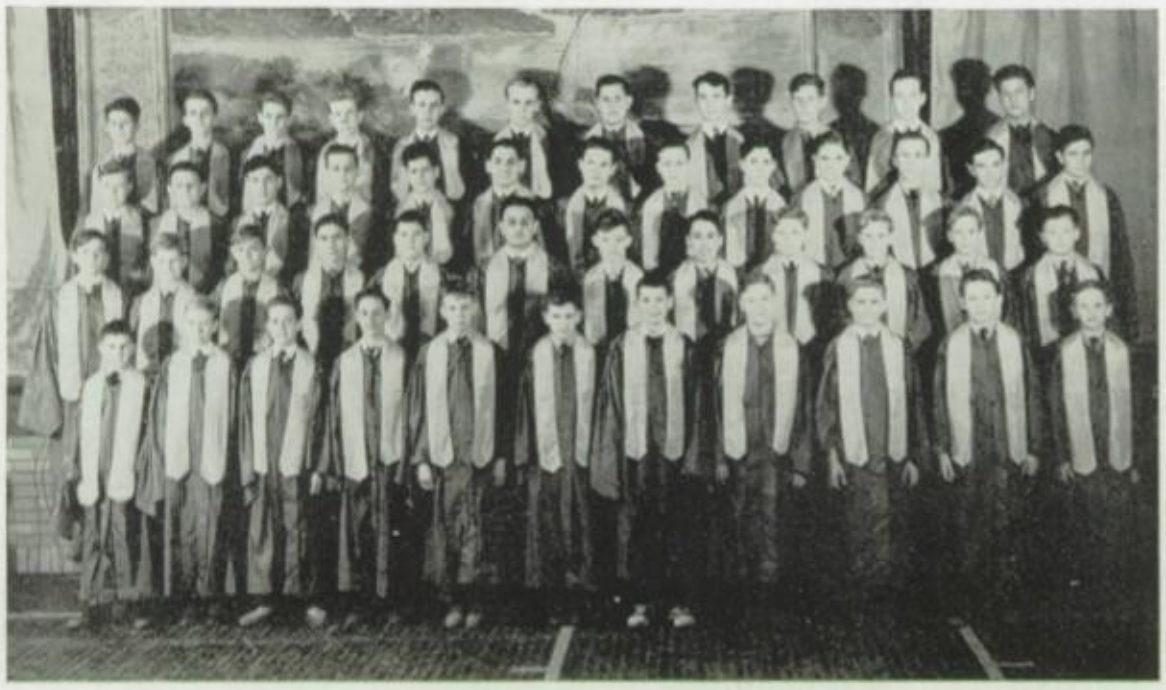
Strictly out of this world — when Mick cats take off with baton weaver Brother Louis Schuster, friskin' the whiskers in prelude to a bit of swingin' out that would melt the heart of every jitterbug movin' a shoe.

In plain, unadulterated "American English," the above is rather a powerful assertion to the effect that the McBride 1942 Orchestra is good.

The arrangements were those of such nationally famous orchestras as Harry James, Glen Miller, and Tommy Dorsey. Seniors, who participated in breaking down these sock courses that will forever be retained in the memories of '42 alumni, were Richard Balsano, Tom Cohen, John David, Glennon Dorlac, Robert Eveld, John McDonough, and Eugene Raftery.

The Junior Swingsters, all underclassmen, were Edward Dierker, Wallace Bourneuf, Russell Roberts, Joseph Kirk, James Hummert, Donald Schulte, Harold Vandiver, Richard Schaller, Robert Godfrey, Robert Harris, Eugene Zufall, Edward Boyle, Ralph de Rousse, Charles Lang, and Robert Hayden.

In addition to playing in both major dramatic productions of the year, "The Milky Way," and "Count Orloff," the orchestra did a bit o'kickin' out in its own special clam bake, "Kornzapoppin," a type of entertainment never before attempted at McBride. This presentation was effected in a truly professional manner, in the typical style and with the usual success of Brother Louis. The audience as well as the members of the orchestra contributed to make this a fitting climax to a successful and unique musical year.



GLEE CLUB

Hats off to the Glee Club for one of its best years at McBride!

Under the capable leadership of Brother Francis Mueller and ably assisted at times by Brothers John Leifel and Eugene Ledger, this club has developed to a high standard of vocal proficiency performing at public functions both in and out of school. Some of the more important public performances were: the appearance before the soldiers at Jefferson Barracks, a concert of Christmas Carols at the U.S.O. Center on Grand and Delmar, the broadcast over Radio Station KWK during Christmas week, the Fontbonne Music Festival, and the Archdiocesan High School Choral Concert comprising the three schools, McBride, Rosati-Kain, and South-Side. Its feature presentation was the delightful musical comedy entitled "Count Orloff," widely acclaimed as one of the best by both parents and student body.

Membership in the organization numbered close to sixty. Featured soloists of the Club were Joseph Cusanelli, John Motta, Emil Polito, and Robert Eschbacher. Their renditions rarely missed an encore. Through graduation the Club loses five of its veteran members, four of whom have rendered valuable service throughout the course of their four years. They are: R. Balsano, L. Dieckmann, E. Polito, and E. Raftery. The Glee Club climaxes its year of musical activities by singing at the graduation exercises to be held at the Cathedral on June seventh.

SENIOR PLAY

The presentation of the Senior Play this year introduced an innovation, unique at McBride. For the first time in the history of the school, a mixed cast was used for the annual play. Four Rosati-Kain Seniors cooperated with fourth-year Mick students to enact "The Milky Way," at the new Rosati-Kain Auditorium.

The action centers about the antics of an anemic milkman, Burleigh Sullivan (Eugene Raftery). Sullivan, through a number of fluke knockouts, publicized by sports reporters, Willard and Eddie (Jack Shortal, Vincent Gibbons; Gilbert Stellern, William Bentz), gains a bout with the Middleweight Champ, Speed McFarland (Ken Nuelle, Charles Preis).

In the meantime Speed has fallen hard for the milkman's sister, Mae Sullivan (Rosemary Peterman, Joan Daues).

All of the up and up (???) bouts are arranged by the Champ's Manager, Gabby Sloan (Frank Geislinger), hindered by Spider, the trainer (Leo McAdams, Louis Roberts), who makes a habit of knocking out the Champ. These knockouts are always credited to Sullivan.

Gabby's chief engineer is Anne Westley (Catherine Schwienher, Reaina Barrett), whose duty is to keep the bespectacled milkman interested in fighting.

Gabby gets rid of Sullivan's contract by passing it off on a Chicago millionaire, Wilbur Austin (Bill Genzler, Donald Molloy), but later regrets it. Why he regrets it and what happens in the championship bout climaxes the story.

The work behind the stage was handled by Tom Finan, Vince Harbke, Bob Witte, and Bob Lynch.

The dramatic coaches were Messrs. Gerald Koetting and Emmett Dustin.

The entire production was under the supervision of Brother Frank Bischof.

DEBATING

Debating, one of the time-honored forensic arts of McBride for the last fifteen years, completed a rather successful season for the year 1941-42.

The resolution this year was very timely in content and held the interest of the contestants during the entire season. The question discussed was, "Resolved, That every able-bodied male citizen shall complete one year of full-time military service before attaining the present draft age."

The debating personnel for the 1941-42 season comprised the following: Brother Wm. Cavanaugh, S.M., coach; Frank Geislinger and Frank Weinrich, affirmative speakers; John Shortal and Thomas Maloney, negative speakers. These gentlemen weathered the verbal barrage of both Catholic Interscholastic and Missouri Debating Leagues.

In this and previous years debating has been relegated to the role of a minor activity for those interested in developing a mastery of forensic technique. Beginning next year special speech courses will be offered as a part of the regular curriculum. Debating will rise to the position of a full-time scholastic subject meriting credit as any other course. It is hoped that in this manner McBride will again rise to the position of a championship contender as it was in days of yore.

ORATORY

Oratory, formerly one of the more flourishing activities at McBride, entered upon a lean year, when only four students participated in the Annual American Legion Oratorical Contest for 1942. Don Bonfa, '43, was awarded First Place in the school finals, competing against Thomas Finan, '42, John David, '42 and Donald Molloy, '42. He represented McBride in the American Legion Group Contest held at Central High School. His topic was "The Constitution and the Free Press," and he was awarded second place honors. Oratory was again under the experienced direction of Brother Harold Huels, S.M.

Four Juniors entered the Annual Marianist Oratorical Contest: Eugene Meiners, John Muldoon, Benjamin Vilbert, and Don Schulte. Vilbert, who took First Place in the School Contest, represented McBride in the Annual Marianist Interscholastic Oratorical Contest sponsored by the Western Catholic Union. The subject of all the orations was "The Catholic Church and World Reconstruction."

John Muldoon and Benjamin Vilbert were the McBride entries in the Annual American Legion Boys' State Oratorical Contest sponsored by the Walnut Park Post of the American Legion. For the fourth consecutive year, a McBride student has won this contest, which is open to all high schools of North St. Louis. Benjamin Vilbert was awarded first place and John Muldoon, second place.

COACH

The shadows of Notre Dame fell on the athletic fields of McBride as Frank Kopczak became head coach of Irish athletics. The former All-American tackle, signed by Bro. Ambrose, succeeded Ed Malone.

Despite the change from the Warner to the Notre Dame system, the coach's football made a creditable showing. His basketball quintet finished third in the Prep League, and then captured the District Crown.

Although lacking championship material, his track squad has proved itself worthy of the name "Fighting Irish."

Mr. Frank Kopczak

Besides coaching the major varsity athletic squads, the "Mad Russian" officiated at the boxing tourney, supervised the physical education periods, and taught first aid and health to the under-classmen.

Although only a "freshman," Mr. Kopczak has established an enviable reputation among students by his willingness and pleasing personality. He came from Washington University where he was assistant coach.

We learn now that the greatest coach of all, Uncle Sam, has had his eyes on the Coach for some time. It is quite evident that Frank Kopczak's fighting ability will now be transferred to the armed services of the United States of America. Good luck Coach, and who knows — perhaps we may soon see you again. Anchors aweigh!

TRACK

With only four lettermen returning, McBride's track coaches, Frank Kopczak and Bro. Peter Gahala, were faced with the Herculean task of defending the Prep track crown.

The tracksters dropped a dual meet to Clayton in the season's opener. The seniors lost 62-46 while the juniors were edged out by a 56-43 count.

However, the thin clads showed definite improvement in their next meet which resulted in a 109-89 victory over Blewett.

The next meet resulted in a 121-96 loss at the hands of Kirkwood. The cinder men then finished third in a triangular meet against Normandy and St. Louis U. High. Another meet resulted in a 133-83 defeat at the hands of C.B.C.

The squad registered twelve points in the Clayton Invitational Meet, the result of Bloss' first in the pole vault, Ed Dierker's second and third in the broad jump and 440 respectively, and Doc Ritchie's third in the mile run. Bloss further proved his ability by capturing first in the pole vault of the State Outdoor Meet.

The team placed only third in the Prep Meet because it was not evenly balanced. Justin Knapp won high honors with 12 points.

Stellar members of the junior squad include: Ed Dierker, Bob Gorke, Ben Vilbert and Bob Smith.

J. Knapp, Jim Bloss and Doc Ritchie are among the senior stars.

FOOTBALL

To establish a season's record of three victories, five losses, and one tie is not so enviable, but when this record is compiled by a spirited team, fighting all the way, some praise is surely due them.

Coached this year by Frank Kopczak, the Colonnade eleven were downed by the powerful onslaughts of St. Louis, 21-0; Normandy, 20-7; Central Catholic, 6-0; Roosevelt, 6-0; and Cleveland, 13-0. In the meantime, they emerged victorious over Western, Cape Girardeau, and C.B.C. to the tunes of 6-0, 7-0, and 12-7, respectively; they held the powerful South Side team to a 0-0 tie.

Robert Belgeri merited a tackle position and Emmet Kroll copped an end berth on the All-Prep Eleven. Some of the outstanding players of the season were Eugene Marshall and Ray Wild at guard, Jim Bloss, Jim Webb, and Jack Quinn in the backfield.

BASEBALL

Second place in the Prep League three years in a row! This is the record of Coach Bro. Eugene Sohm's baseball nines. This year's squad again established an enviable record.

The Irish opened the season with a 26-4 slaughter of Soldan. In league competition, they dropped a slugfest to St. Louis U. High 18-13, but followed with victories over South Side, Central Catholic, and C.B.C. The C.B.C. contest was a one hit victory for Joe Piekarski.

Vito Pizzurro also hurled a one-hit masterpiece by blanking Central Catholic, 1-0.

Tom "Iron Man" Cohen, regular catcher for three years, gives promise of becoming a truly great ball player. He has been signed to a Cincinnati farm club.

Dave Miller, "Red" Kenny, Jim Lanigan, and Bob Burrichter guarded the infield, while Bob Wrobel, Bert Mossinghoff, Gene Marshall, and Bill Gough were the chief fly chasers. Bill Conley, Emmet Hunt, Joe Piekarski, and Vito Pizzurro formed the mound corps.

BASKETBALL

For the third consecutive year, the scrappy Colonnade quintet fought its way through tough competition to win the Regional title, defeating Clayton High in the finals, 36-34, in a thrill-packed overtime game. The Mick cagers had earned the right to meet the first-seeded Clayton Greyhounds by soundly trouncing Normandy, 41-28, and Ferguson, 36-26, in earlier games.

In Prep League competition, the Orange and Green opened with a victory over St. Louis U. High, 24-22, Klevorn's last second long shot and Schindler's set-up deciding the game. C. B. C. bowed twice before the onslaught of the Colonnaders by scores of 19-17 and 31-25, while losses at the hands of Central Catholic and South Side exploded the hopes of a Prep Championship.

In non-league competition, the Micks ended the season with victories over Southwest, 25-22, Western, 30-13, Central, 24-19, Cape Central, 27-24, Chaminade, 40-18, and Wellston, 34-14, while losing to Beaumont, 44-19, Soldan, 51-27, Blewett, 30-18, and St. Charles, 26-21.

Much of the credit for the fine showing of the team must be given to Capt. "Baldy" Klevorn, who pulled games out of the fire time and again, and who was elected captain of the 1942 Prep League All-Star squad, and Tom O'Sullivan, who placed second on the All-Prep and All-State fives.

Replacements for the stars of this year's team will be difficult to find, as the "B" team has had one of its poorest seasons in years, winning four and losing four of its league contests.

First Row: E. Hannick, C. Schroeder, T. Cohen, B. Klevorn, J. Schindler.
Second Row: F. Kopczak, coach; D. Miller, R. Burrichter, K. Nuelle, R. Farrar, Bro. E. Sohm, A. D.
Third Row: R. McNamara, G. Dorlac, T. O'Sullivan, J. Piekarski, R. Thro.

BOXING

The gloves flew thick and fast this year as eleven contestants battled their way to championships in McBride's seventh annual Boxing Tournament.

The tourney, held during the latter part of March with benefits going to the missions, saw Joseph Young, Ralph Grimmer, Jim Shea, Kenneth Morrison, Robert Halley, Ray Aubuchon, Jim Webb, Joe Cronin, Norbert Koenig, Bob Belgeri, and Jack Quinn emerge victorious from a field of one hundred-twelve pugnacious individuals.

Brother Sohm awarded major letters to the champs, six-inch monograms to the runners-up, and emblems to the other plucky participants.

TENNIS

McBride's mighty racqueteers again proved far superior to anything other Prep teams had to offer as they wrapped up their sixth consecutive Prep title with successive victories over South Side, C. B. C., Central Catholic, and St. Louis, U. High.

Following these triumphs, the squad journeyed to the State tournament, held at Columbia, Mo. The doubles team, composed of Ken Nuelle and Ed Goergen advanced to the semi-finals before being eliminated by the ultimate champions, Westmore. The squad also captured its only non-league match by defeating Western Military Academy, 4-2.

The members of the team were: Ken Nuelle, Captain, Ted Shassere, Ed Goergen, and Larry Niemann. It was Bro. Frank Bischof's first year as coach of the squad.
